NANNY

About me: I am a Ukrainian national from Kyiv and I speak Russian and Ukrainian. I am an experienced nanny and I am looking for a full-time job as a nanny or mother's helper. I am responsible, friendly, active, balanced, and accurate. I have a positive outlook and can easily find a common language with children and their parents. I am trained in First-Aid and I have excellent references. My experience to date is working with children aged 0-12 years. I have a driving license. I have regular English conversation lessons and I am determined to improve my conversational English. I currently live in Hampshire with my 9-year-old daughter Kristina and my dog Rich. My two adult sons are in Ukraine. I have a 3-year visa which allows me to live, study and work in the UK. I have letters of recommendation from employers.

Past Employment:

Dates: From January 2021 to February 2022 (before the start of the war in Ukraine).

Position: I worked as a nanny in a family with a baby from 5 months old.

Areas of responsibility: Compliance with the daily routine of children established by parents. Always keep children in sight. Swaddling, massage, feeding and outdoor activities. Use of age-appropriate developmental activities. Provide first aid or other assistance as needed. Care of the children's room and toys.

Dates: Since 2018, I started working as an accompanying nanny.

Position: I worked as an accompanying nanny in different families when needed.

Areas of responsibility: Picking up the child from school. Accompanying the child to after-school classes. Taking the child home. Staying with the child at home or in the park until the parents arrive.

Dates: From 2010 to 2012 I worked as a manager in a private company.

Dates: From 1991 to 2010 I worked in the banking sector.

Position: I went from a junior manager to the head of the currency control department.

Areas of responsibility: I have worked with clients throughout my years of work in the banking system.

Education: Kyiv State Economic University: From 1991 to 1997. Master's degree. I am constantly engaged in self-education in the field of psychology, in particular, the study of child psychology and various systems in the approach to raising children.

Professional skills: Compliance with the daily routine of children established by parents. Always keep children in sight. Swaddling, massage, feeding and outdoor activities. Use of age-appropriate developmental activities. Provide first aid or other assistance as needed. For older children, I can help express their emotions in difficult situations and help develop independence. Care for the children's room and toys.

Interests: reading, swimming, photography, hiking.
